

Security procedures that limit easy access to cross-Puget Sound transportation via the Washington State Ferries will have a severe negative impact on our local economy and way of life. I say no to baggage screening and searches. I live on an island. And I accept a level of risk to my personal safety over the massive inconvenience, disruption and self-inflicted terror that intrusive security procedures will have. Go protect our borders and leave us alone!